

We feel that the do not call list is the best thing that has happened. Why can't businesses realize we do not want to hear from them. Dont call us, we'll call you if we want your business. Don't let big business have their way. Think of the consumer please. People are tired of telemarketers.